

THINKING MATERIALS SETTING THE TABLE

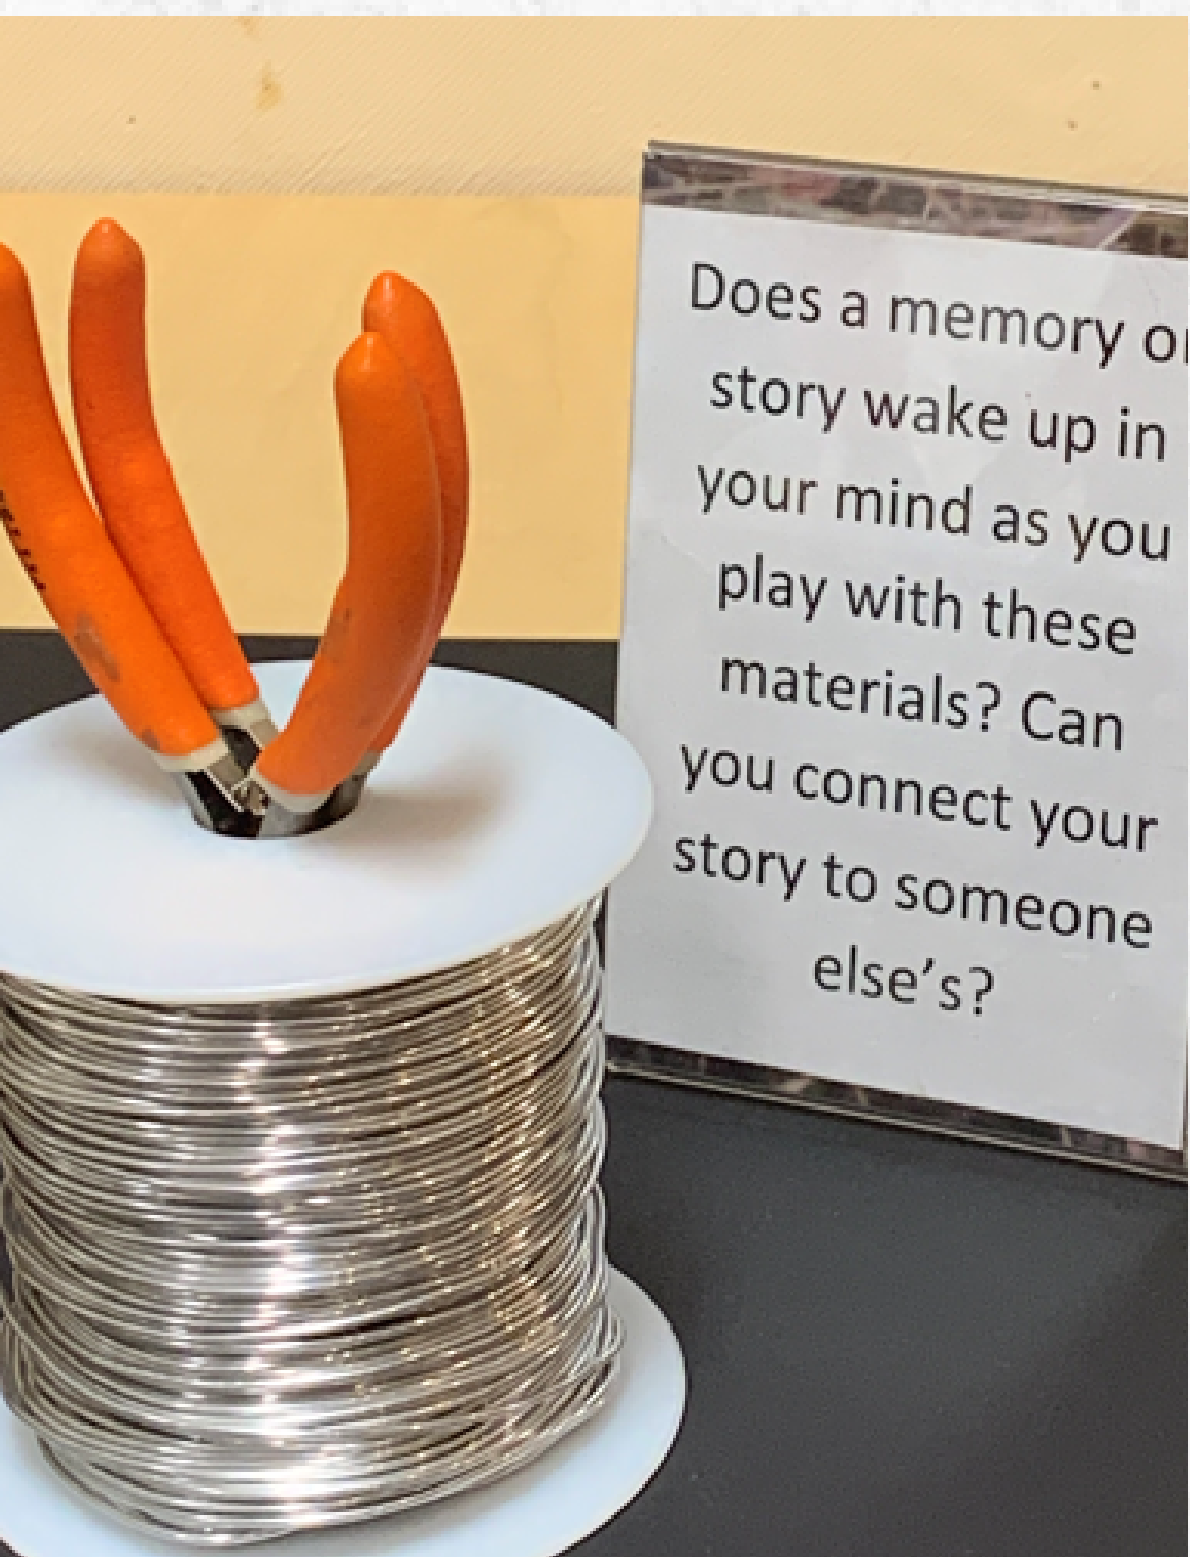

Aesthetics matter! When using materials as thinking tools, it is very important to create aesthetically pleasing and uncluttered environments where students can explore the materials with a sense of calm. Let the images below inspire you as you create your own 'table ateliers.'

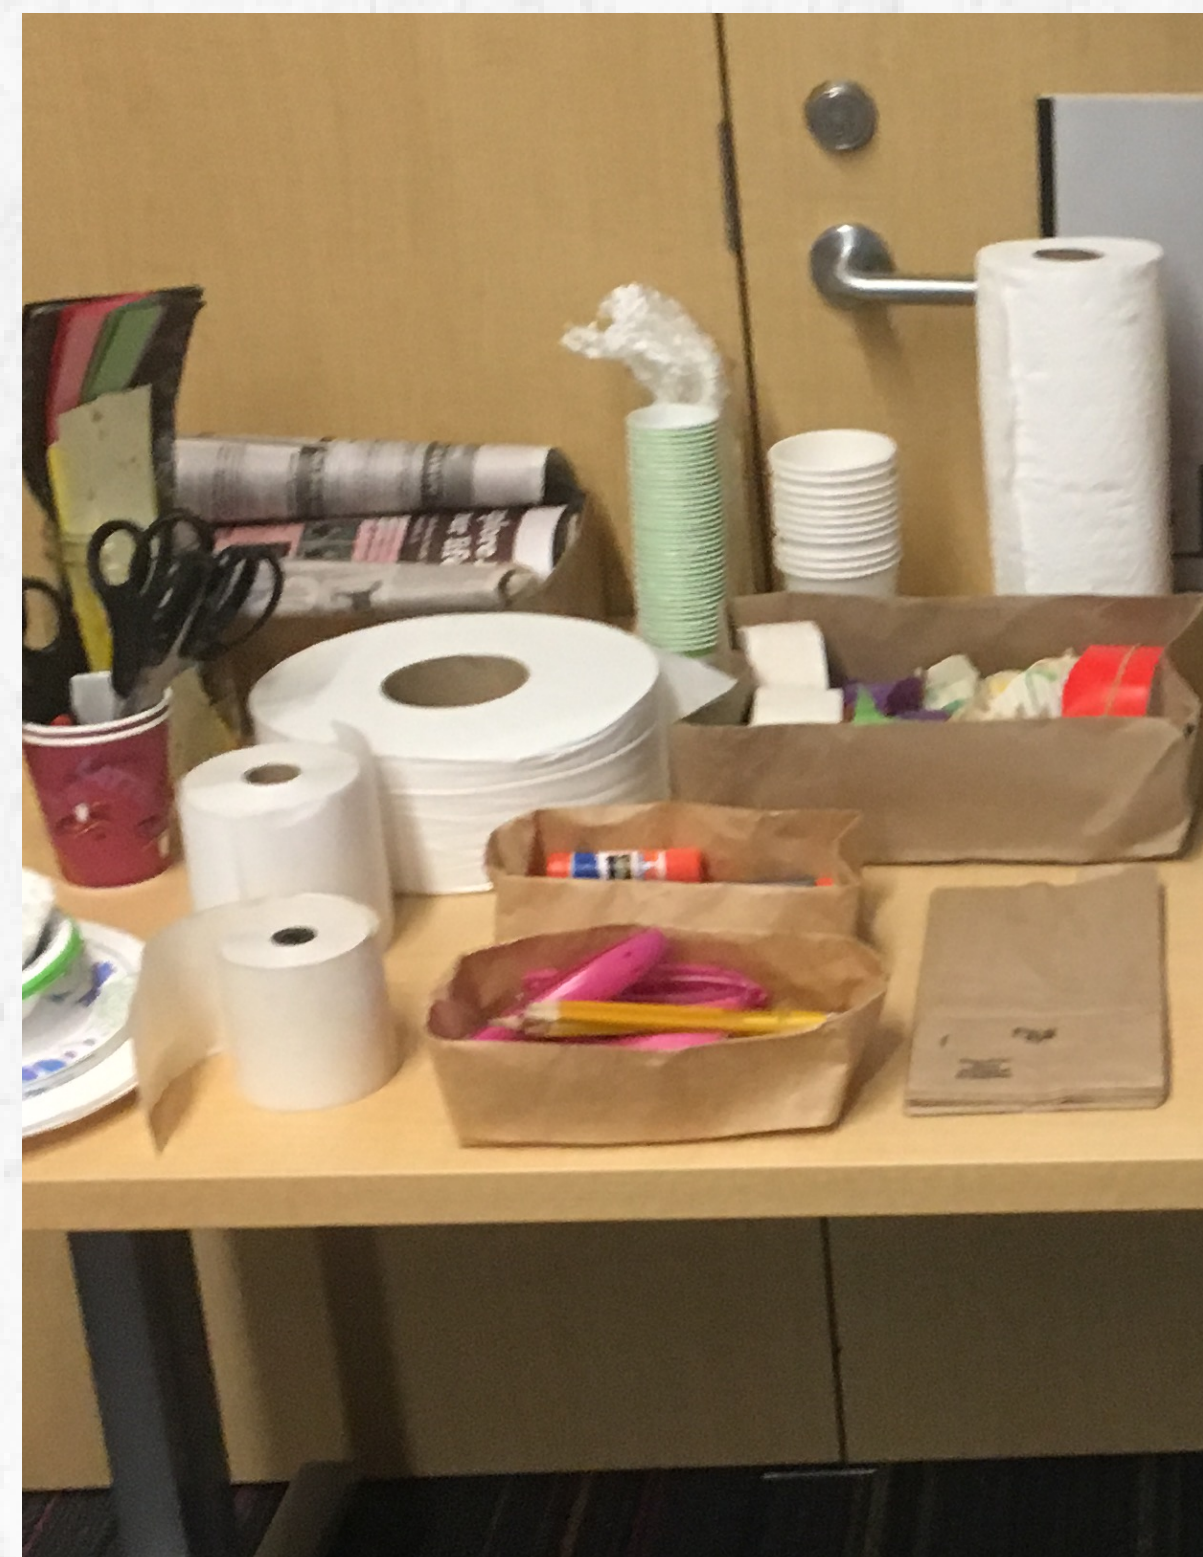

THINKING WITH CLAY

THINKING WITH WIRE

THINKING WITH TAPE

THINKING WITH PAPER

THINKING
WITH CARDBOARD

THINKING WITH LIGHT
& SHADOW

THINKING WITH CHARCOAL

THINKING WITH COLOUR

THINKING
WITH WATER
LIGHT & COLOUR

THINKING WITH LOOSE PARTS

THINKING WITH NATURAL
MATERIALS

THINKING WITH LARGE NATURAL
MATERIALS

THINKING WITH PENS

THINKING WITH WOOD
& TOOLS

THINKING WITH INDIA
INK

THINKING WITH COLLAGE

THINKING WITH LARGE FABRIC

THINKING WITH WORDS

THINKING WITH HOMEMADE PAINTBRUSHES

THINKING WITH ALUMINUM FOIL

